ROMAN, HOLLAND, LUBIN

more than ordinarily catchy. There are at least half a dozen songs that one takes away from the theater and that linger long in the memory. "Oh! Oh! Delphine" will begin its tour in the South.

A new operetta has been produced with success in Berlin, entitled "The Lieutenant's Sweetheart."

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, the world's greatest actress, will appear on the Orpheum theater screen tomorrow afternoon and evening, in Alexander Dumas's world famous play entitled, "Camille." This is Mme. Bernhardt's first and only appearance in motion pictures, and it is a triumph of scenic art. As a special request the management asks that the ladies who wish to see Mme. Bernhardt in "Camille" come in the afternoon, if possible, owing to the vast crowds at night.

Today's show includes a snappy two-part Broncho drama called "Jim Regan's Last Raid," featuring Richard Stanton; a "Reliance" comedy, "Iszy and His Rival," and the second installment of "A Midsummer Love Tangle," entitled "A Suspended Ceremony," featuring Marguerita Fisher and Harry Pollard.

Mme. Trentini will probably appear in the fall in a new musical comedy from Vienna called "Polish Blood."

The Bijou program today is surely an interesting one. The eighth episode of "The Perils of Pauline," the third number of George Ade's fables, "The Busy Business Boy," and "The Droppers In," a two-part Edison drama, "May of the Mountains," and a fine Vitagraph drama, "Happy Go Lucky," are shown. Saturday the third number of the "Giant-White Sox" series, "Broncho Billy," a two-part Kline extra special drama, "The Stronger Tie," and an Edison comedy, "A Canine Rival," will make a show that will be a pleasure to witness.

Catherine Chisolm Cutting, author of "Kitty McKay," has written a satire on divorce entitled "Babes in the Wood."

At the Odeon theater this afternoon and evening will be shown the eighth episode of "The Million Dollar Mystery," entitled "The Wiles of a Woman." Also the two-reel Lubin picture entitled "Three Men and a Woman," one of the most sensational melodramatic pictures ever released. A ship on fire and a heroic rescue. There will also be shown the latest Hearst-Selig pictorial, showing an actual event of the world.

For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Manager Murray will offer Kennedy and Vincent, a big musical comedy company with lots of good comedy, singing and dancing, and new costumes and singing. There are nine people in the company.

THE THEATERS

An elaborate and spectacular film adaptation of the famous racing play, "His Last Dollar," with its author, David Higgins, in the role originally created by him, is now in the course of production by the Famous Players Film Company. The play is perhaps the most thrilling of its kind ever produced, and the success of the original production was so decisive and notable that the title of the play has become a by-word in racing circles, and for many years a "David Higgins" has been commonly accepted as representing the last dollar in one's possession.

F. C. Whitney will produce a new play by Rida Johnson Young called "Lady Luxury."

Klaw and Erlanger will send "Oh! Oh! Delphine," the popular musical comedy success, with the book and lyrics of C. M. S. McLellan, and the music by Ivan Caryll, on an extended tour of the country this season. "Oh! Oh! Delphine" will be presented in the same elaborate way that characterized its all season run at the new Amsterdam theater in New York. It combines a genuinely witty book with music that is far Claude Robinson, manager of the Robinson Grand theater, has arrived in the city from New York and is making arrangements for the opening of the theater, which will be next Thursday evening when dainty Miss Eva Mull supported by an all star cast will present "The Girl from Maxim's." This production is one of New York's big success. The company is composed of forty well known actors and carries a special sixty-foot baggage car of scenery.

The star stock company of Wallace Munro in San Francisco recently produced a new play called "Trifling With Tomorrow."

Orrin Johnson has been engaged for an important role in "The Trap," by Richard Harding Davis and Jules Eckert Goodman.

A novel farce, "Peace and Quiet," by Edwin Milton Royle, author of "The Squaw Man," is said to represent an entirely new departure from the ordinary methods that have been in vogue on the American stage.

An English playwright, McDonald Hastings, is writing a modern drama for Nazimova, in which she will appear in New York next November.

John W. Ransome, who played the part of the Cincinnati brewer in "The Prince of Eilen," has written a comedy called "From St. Joe to Mexico."

FEATURES

And Specialties Galore at the Clarksburg Fair, including a Big Midway.
